

Natasa Bogiatzoglou

Natasa Bogiatzoglou is a psychologist and trainee member of the Hellenic Society of Child and Adolescent Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy (HACAPP). She completed her undergraduate studies at the Department of Psychology of the University of Crete and holds postgraduate diplomas specializing in Psychology-Counseling (University of Ioannina) and School Psychology (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens). She has attended seminars related to mental health, psychopathology and psychoanalysis, as well as to psychometric tools for the assessment of personality and intelligence. In addition, she has published in scientific journals and she has announcements in conferences concerning children, adolescents and their developmental contexts (family, school). She works in evaluation, counseling and support centers of the Ministry of Education and privately, offering psychological services to children, teenagers and adults.