

Darlene Bregman Ehrenberg , Ph.D. , ABPP , is the author of "Intimate Edge: The Achievement of Psychoanalytic Interaction" (WW Norton and Company , Inc., 1992). She is in private practice in New York, and a Teaching and Supervising Psychoanalyst, Faculty of Education, William Alanson White Institute , Supervising Analyst and Clinical Associate Professor, New York University Postdoctoral Program in Psychoanalysis, Mitchell Relational Center for Psychoanalysis , Research Institute for Contemporary Psychoanalysis, Los Angeles , California, as well as other institutes. She was an assistant editor at the journal Contemporary Psychoanalysis for 20 years, and is currently on the Editorial Board of Contemporary Psychoanalysis, associate editor at Psychoanalytic Dialogues, consulting editor at Psychoanalytic Enquiry . She teaches widely around the world and her articles and book have been translated into different languages. She is currently working on several new books, one on transgenerational trauma, and others focusing on issues of desire and healing action.