

Lycia Alexander-Guerra, M.D. received a medical doctorate from Boston University. Her psychiatry residency training was at the University of Florida and the University of South Florida, Tampa. Her psychoanalytic training was at the New York Psychoanalytic Institute. She is a founding member of the Tampa Bay Institute for Psychoanalytic Studies where she is its current president, a supervisor, training analyst and on faculty. She is co-founder of the Veterans Family Initiative, an organization of mental health professionals who provide pro bono psychotherapy for veterans and their families. Dr. Alexander-Guerra is a member of the American Psychoanalytic Association and the International Psychoanalytic Association, and the Tampa Bay Psychoanalytic Society.